Broadway With A Twist

Following in the footsteps of popular Broadway fundraisers, tonight's show features some of London's best musical theatre stars performing songs they usually would not be asked to sing: solos as ensemble numbers, wrong age, wrong...well just wrong! The results are amazing. In addition, all the performers, including the band and backstage, are donating their time to provide an evening of entertainment everyone can afford and to help raise funds for the London Food Bank's Arts For All Kids program. What better way to help kids find their love of the arts than through a group of grown up 'kids' having a blast creating a new Broadway performance experience. We are so grateful for their talent and generosity. Now, the cast is ready... The band is ready... and we hope you are ready to enjoy a night of laughter, tenderness, surprise, and poignancy. Thank you for supporting the kids! We hope you enjoy the show.

Arts For All Kids

"Nurturing Creativity; Inspiring Growth"

Celebrating 38 years of service to the London community, Arts For All Kids believes the arts are a growing up necessity. Children gain self-confidence and self-esteem, learn to express their opinions, views, and feelings in creative ways, become more perceptive and communicative, and become better problem solvers. But most of all, they learn the arts are not just for the elite; they are for everyone. And life is so much better when you can be involved in the arts.

Arts For All Kids provides a nurturing atmosphere for children of various abilities to explore their love of piano, violin, guitar, creative writing, dance, drama, and visual art. They participate in two artistic disciplines each week and are taught by a team of dedicated volunteer instructors. Our children bring enthusiasm, energy, and excitement to class and repay us with amazing smiles and proud accomplishments. They show the best side of pursuing the arts: love for what they are participating in.

Arts 4 All Kids hopes you will support the program if you are able. You can make your donation online at arts4allkids.ca/donate, use the envelopes available in the lobby to donate cash or cheque, or mail a cheque payable to ARTS 4 ALL KIDS to:
